

Reading BINGO-RES

Need a new book to read? Check out NCWISEOWL's eBook collection

<http://www.ncwiseowl.org/eBooks.htm>. Collections are sorted by K-8. Share pics with

Mrs. Barker at nbarker@haywood.k12.nc.us when you complete a task!

Read a book that has been turned into a movie. Then have a movie night!	Read in the kitchen! Try out a new recipe!	Read to your pet, stuffed animal, or a family member.	Read outside! Go for a walk. How many signs with writing can you find?
Read an ebook ! Username- res Password-books  	Create a video booktalk about your favorite book. What would you like future readers to know about this book?	Storytime with a friend! Call a friend on the phone to make up your own story together. "Once upon a time all the kids were stuck at home..."	Read directions! Play a new game and read the directions, follow the directions on a new recipe, or look up how to make slime and follow the directions.
Call or videochat a family member and ask them to tell you a story about when they were a kid. Record and date that story in a journal.	Create your own comic or graphic novel. Try Make Belief Comix or Storyboard That . Or use another app or website.	Read with a flashlight.  Bonus: build a blanket fort to read in with your flashlight.	Listen to a story!  Have someone read to you, listen to a story online, or check out an audiobook on Tumble Books .
Read in the kitchen! Help write out a grocery list.  Bonus: help bake or cook something delicious.	Read outside! Grab some chalk and make a hopscotch board. Write a letter in each square. Say the letter while hopping through your course.	Write your own story or joke book!  Bonus: share it with your teacher when we return to school.	Read while playing! Play hangman with a family member. Create book-related words.